

BETH QUINDRY

Professional Experience:

- Managed administrative, financial and personnel functions for the Convention and Entertainment Centers Department, City of Kansas City, Missouri.
- Oversaw contractors and contract administration for municipal government.
- Developed financing scenarios for convention center expansion and stormwater/wastewater management plans.
- Project manager for performance measure development and implementation.
- Coordinated Kansas City's participation in ICMA's Center for Performance Measurement.
- Project manager for successful campaign to increase property taxes for stormwater management in Belton, Missouri.
- Project manager for public education activities on various infrastructure improvement projects.
- Organized and conducted educational workshops for cities and developers on wastewater issues.
- Developed and implemented public opinion surveys.

Employment History:

- Shockey Consulting Services, Since 2005
- Business Manager, Kansas City Convention Center, 2 years
- Budget Analyst, City of Kansas City, Missouri, 3 years
- Management Assistant, Village of Elm Grove, Wisconsin, 1 year
- Intern, Office of the Deputy Comptroller for Finance & Development, City of St. Louis, Missouri, 3 months
- Legislative Advocate Assistant, Office of Michael Blumenfeld, Madison, Wisconsin, 1 year
- Senior Coordinator of Survey Research Projects, University of Illinois, Chicago Survey Research Laboratory, 3 years

Professional Societies:

Government Finance Officers Association

Education:

- Master of Arts, Public Affairs, University of Wisconsin, 2000
- Bachelor of Arts, Political Science, University of Missouri, 1993

Contact Information:

314.497.3126 • beth@shockeyconsulting.com