

CARLA DODS

Professional Experience:

- Rain Garden expert. Developed presentations and workshops on the design and installation of rain gardens for residential areas, parks and churches.
- Conducted the following Rain Garden Workshops:
 - Jackson County Stormwater Commission – November 2005
 - Little Blue River Sewer District – December 2005
 - City of Parkville, MO Board of Alderman – January 2006
 - Platte City, MO Business Group – January 2006
 - Platte County Master Gardeners – January 2006
 - Parkville Neighborhood Leaders – January 2006
 - Presbyterians for Restoring Earth – February 2006
 - Platte County University Extension – March 2006
 - Lowe's Home Center, Liberty – April 2006
 - Weatherby Lake Improvement Co. – April 2006
 - City of Parkville – April 2006
 - Village Presbyterian Church – May 2006
 - Kiwanis Club of North Kansas City – July 2006
 - Mid-Continent Libraries – September 2006
 - Platte Woods United Methodist Church – March 2007
- Developed watershed management programs and plans, assessed watersheds for stormwater management units and developed a mitigation program.
- Project manager for wetland delineation and permitting projects.
- Experienced in presenting technical material to public officials and the general public as well as gathering and assessing comments and opinions from various stakeholders.
- Provided stormwater management services including stream assessments and conceptual designs of rain gardens, bioretention units and a wet prairie during redevelopment of existing property. Missouri Stream Team Level 2 trained.
- Presented "Watersheds - Why Should We Care?" at the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency Region 7, 10th Regional Wetlands and Water Resources Meeting,
- Prepared environmental assessments and environmental impact statements for federal, state and local agencies. (NEPA compliance).
- Provided environmental site assessments for a variety of facilities including chemical and manufacturing plants, food distribution facilities and abandoned properties.
- Prepared technical work documents and reports for environmental investigations including oil and chemical industries, manufacturing, explosives production and biological hazards.
- Conducted HAZWOPER and Hazardous Materials Spill Response Training for 12 years throughout the country to construction, transportation and consulting employees.

Employment History:

- Shockey Consulting Services, LLC., Since 2004
- Platte Land Trust, Director, since 2004 ; Technical/Scientific Advisor, 2000-2004
- Environmental Scientist and Project Manager, Regional Health and Safety Manager, URS Corporation, Overland Park, Kansas, 15 years
- Environmental Scientist, Resource Engineering, Inc./ENSR, Houston, Texas, 2 years

Education:

- Master of Science, Environmental Science, Emphasis in Water Resources and Environmental Policy, Indiana University, 1983
- Bachelor of Science, Environmental Science, Texas Christian University, 1980
- Watershed Restoration Institute, Center for Watershed Protection, Ellicot City, MD, 2003
- Stream Restoration Course, U.S. EPA Region 7, Kansas City, 2002

Contact Information:

816-746-9351 • carla@shockeyconsulting.com