

PUBLIC PARTICIPATION PROJECTS

Shockey Consulting Services, LLC. specializes in getting the public involved in local government issues and projects. Our expertise in public relations, facilitation, advertising and graphic design enables us to design and implement effective public participation programs. Past experience includes public involvement with stormwater issues and projects, regional initiatives, wastewater, transportation and electronic government (e-gov).